Delivery / Pickup Fees

The delivery/pickup and labor fees noted on the order form cover transportation fees from our warehouse to, and then back from, your booth at the event. We will also set and test the equipment, provide support throughout the event and return to pack and remove the equipment at the end of the event at no extra charge. Special circumstances that may result in additional labor fees will be discussed and approved prior to execution.

If for any reason we need to make additional deliveries to the booth there may be additional labor fees charged. You must be present in your booth to accept the equipment or a second delivery fee will be assessed.

GENERAL DATASIS RENTAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

PAYMENT TERMS: Full payment is expected at time of order placement. Equipment availability is not guaranteed until full payment is received, including rental fee, tax and delivery. Payment can be made by company check or credit card in advance.

UNION CHARGES / DRAYAGE: The Datasys delivery fee indicated on this rental form includes the cost of the equipment delivery from our warehouse to and from the exhibit hall. Rental company staff members are permitted to perform setups and removals of equipment in the exhibit halls.

TECHNICAL SUPPORT: Datasys will support our equipment throughout the rental period. There is no charge for the replacement or service of defective equipment provided by Datasys, but we reserve the right to charge for technical support of equipment that is not ours or software assistance of any sort. Datasys is not responsible for damages resulting from the use of our equipment.

VIRUSES/PATCHES/SPYWARE: Although we endeavor to have the very latest operating system patches and anti-virus definitions installed we cannot be held responsible for damage or downtime that might be incurred as the result of an internet attack of any sort.

DAMAGE / LOSS: The lessee shall pay the full replacement or repair charges of any Datasys property that is damaged or not returned for any reason, and regardless of any insurance coverage that may be applicable. In addition, rental fees may be incurred while the equipment remains in an unusable state.

ORDER CANCELLATION: Cancellations after the deadline date will receive 50% credit, no credit will be issued for cancellation after delivery.
